Dear Strata-Tac Customer,

Strata-Tac continues to monitor potential regulatory, safety, health and environmental impact of our products as part of our on-going product stewardship and regulatory compliance efforts. As such, Strata-Tac routinely reviews material composition of our products against local, state, and federal regulatory compliance requirements.

Based on this review, Strata-Tac has determined that there are no intentionally added PFAS materials in any of their products. Strata-Tac assumes no liability and is not responsible for any PFAS, PFOS, or PFOA that may be present in the customer owned film.
